

HEWITSON

BAROSSA VALLEY

Dean Hewitson was a winemaker at Petaluma for 10 years, during which time he managed to do three vintages in France and one in Oregon, as well as undertaking his Masters at the University of California, Davis. It is hardly surprising that the wines are immaculately made from a technical viewpoint. Dean sources 30+-year-old Riesling from the Eden Valley and 70+-year-old shiraz from McLaren Vale; he also makes a Barossa Valley Mourvèdre from vines planted in 1853 at Rowland Flat, and Barossa Valley Shiraz and Grenache from 60-year-old vines at Tanunda. Exports to Europe, Asia and the US.
