Set in the heart of Central Otago's Upper Clutha basin, our 12 hectare vineyard sits alone at 380 metres above sea level on a stunning north facing slope which hides a special geology. Here we are obsessively dedicated to the production of exceptional Pinot noir, in fact it's all we grow. We planted 40,000 vines in 2002; we patiently tended them then launched our wine - akitu (which means the apex or highest point) with our 2012 vintage. This is fine wine from a magnificent and unique place - Central Otago at its exceptional best.

Located in Waipara, in North Canterbury's premium wine region, Dancing Water embodies the soul of their extraordinary terroir. The vineyard thrives on ancient limestone soils, once part of a unique seabed, imparting remarkable character and intensity to their wine. The historic site, recently restored to its former glory, is also home to some of New Zealand's oldest living, dry-grown, ungrafted vines. The name Dancing Water reflects the shimmering local waterways, symbolising the joy and liveliness that their wines bring. Guided by a simple philosophy, 'to craft wines as vibrant and beautiful as the land itself', Dancing Water offers something truly exceptional. The art of beautiful wine.

Tom and Fiona named the label Rock Ferry after a landmark property on the north bank of the Wairau River. The property has a rock outcrop where early settlers would base themselves to be ferried across the gravelly, flood prone Wairau River to reach the fledgling township. Today, Tom, Fiona and their team grow organic wines from their four unique vineyard sites in two of New Zealand's premier winegrowing regions. Three are in Marlborough; the Orchard Vineyard, where the winery is located, The Corners Vineyard, home to the Rock Ferry Cellar Door, and Brookby Springs Vineyard in the Southern Valleys sub-region. Last but not least is Trig Hill Vineyard, which is Rock Ferry's home away from home, in the rugged Bendigo sub-region of Central Otago.

Escarpment strives to produce wines that capture a unique sense of place. Our winery is based on Te Muna Road on the fabled distinctive alluvial gravels of the Martinborough Terrace, perfect for sublime Pinot Noir. “Te Muna” in the Maori language means “secret” or “special place”, and to us at Escarpment that is exactly how we feel about the land and what it means to live, grow and make wine there. We are focused on creating wines with an identifiable structure, complexity and fruit expression that reflect their distinctive sites and their regional Martinborough accent.

In 2012, Baron Benjamin de Rothschild purchased 24 hectares in the heart of the Marlborough region of New Zealand. This area's cool climate is perfect for ripening high quality Sauvignon Blanc grapes and providing them with their typical lemon and grapefruit flavours, together with crisp acidity. The estate has been managed under regenerative organic viticultural practices from 2020 – the 2024 vintage will be fully BioGro certified. Ten years later, 34.5 of the best hectares were purchased in Akarua, a historic and pioneering vineyard in Central Otago, with the vast majority of these in Cairnmuir. Nestled in the foothills of the mountains and amid breathtaking scenery, the land here offers rare balanced conditions which are suited to producing very fine Pinot Noirs. In Māori, the name 'Akarua' means two vines. Pinot Noir and Chardonnay were the two varietals first planted on the estate. They now represent 87% and 10% of the parcels respectively, and a small amount of Riesling completes the range.

A family owned estate, hidden in the Southern Valley's of Marlborough New Zealand, one of the world's purest wine regions. Deep in the Waihopai Valley, Bryan and Jan Johnson had the audacity to establish 180 hectares of estate vineyards on land considered too hard, too dry and too unfertile for wine. It was a venture that started with a passion for the land. This pioneering spirit established one of New Zealand's most successful family-run wineries, now growing seven varieties including Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Chardonnay, Pinot Gris, Gewurztraminer, Pinot Noir and Syrah.

Te Kano, the Māori word for The Seed, is a family-owned wine estate in Central Otago, focused on producing the best Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Pinot Gris, and other interesting varieties and styles. The brand is a true estate operation from grape to glass, with four vineyards, a cellar door, winery and bottling line ensuring quality and consistency. The Lloyd family are passionate about the land and are committed to its regeneration by using organic practices and planting native flora and fauna on land which was sluiced during the gold rush in the 1800s. The family believe they are caretakers of the land and by doing so, will leave a legacy, reminding us that the seeds we plant today will blossom for generations to come.
