Simon's story

Simon Sorby Adams started winemaking in 1980, and with 44 Barossa plus international vintages, can attest to the theory that great wines are made in the vineyard. Committed to a sustainable future and holding the traditional ways of winemaking, oak and region.

As Chief Winemaker, at Yalumba Wines (Hill Smith Family Estate) for over 20 years, Simon honed his appreciation for the Barossa and crafted some of the most prized wines. Continuing this into his own wines, Simon with wife Jill, partners with local growers to tend to the coming vintage to ensure the fruit is aligned to the wine for harvest.

& the next generation

Simon's kids are Angus, Digby & Sally. The portmanteau of their names is GUDILLY. Wines from emerging and popular grape varieties made with drinkability, and for today's food and lifestyles. Sourced from single vineyard fruit, the styles are once again created in the vineyard prior to harvest.

Fun and fresh, the next generation wants to experience new ways, experiment with new flavours and enjoy in more casual settings.

A Journey of discovery

Wine combines agriculture, history, art and science. The beauty of wine is the personal experience we each can have and the way our opinions, memories and preferences change with time. Offering a journey of discovery in one's lifetime, we can individually seek the wine styles of today, learning stories from the past, and uncovering the innovations for tomorrow. Our label is a tribute to our ancestor John Couch Adams. With fellow mathematicians, he proved the existence of the planet Neptune in the 1840's. This spirit of discovery is in our winemaking, taking old traditions into the future with sustainable practices.

Traditional Barossa Classics

Eden Valley and Barossa Valley sub regions make up the Barossa where uniquely both cool and warm climates exist in the same region. The influence of structure and finesse from Eden Valley, with the power and richness of Barossa Valley results in wines to delight upon release and cellaring capabilities for the coming decades.

Finely grained French oak barrels weathered prior to coopering, support the natural fruit and tannins without being overbearing. The investment in quality oak, time for maturing in barrel and bottle, is evident in the commitment to quality under all Sorby Adams wines.

Sorby Adams The Thing is our BIG thing.

40 months spent in fine-grained French oak.

A blend of old vine Eden Valley and Barossa Valley Shiraz, the harmonious balance of ripe flavours, rich tannins and length will cellar well past the next decade.

We use corks and wax in the luxurious screen-printed glass to offset our footprint. Highly acclaimed and the epitome of our winemaking efforts.

Neptune Rings

There are five rings of the Planet Neptune.

Adams Ring, is the outermost, which is also the most interesting in orbital shape and named after our ancestral cousin, John Couch Adams. We have dedicated each of the wines in our super premium range to the other Rings of Neptune, named after fellow mathematicians and astrologers.

Eden Valley Elegance

Our white wine and rose styles are sourced from the cool climate Eden Valley sub region of the Barossa. We seek lean acidity to balance fresh fruit flavours and elegant characters. Minerality in Riesling, fresh apple pie of Pinot Gris, and Pinot rose that is alive with berries and petals. All finishing dry and crisp.
