

SERAFINO

IN THE BEGINNING

MCLAREN VALE FAMILY VINEYARDS SINCE 1968

Serafino "Steve" Maglieri arrived in Australia from Italy, a passionate and driven 17-year-old full of dreams. Two years later, with his father Giovanni, he planted his first vines in South Australia's McLaren Vale. From the beginning, Steve and his father worked from dawn to dusk, seven days a week, to produce wines of outstanding quality.

"I LOVE THE OUTDOORS, THE PRUNING, THE PICKING AND THE ABILITY TO BE ABLE TO CREATE SOMETHING FROM BASICALLY NOTHING" STEVE SAYS.

And it's this love that has seen him win many wine accolades both locally and internationally. Today Steve's daughters Maria and Diana are the driving force behind Serafino Wines, forging ahead with traditional McLaren Vale varieties, as well as exciting Italian-style wines such as Lagrein, Vermentino, Sangiovese, Pinot Grigio, Primitivo, Nebbiolo and Moscato. Steve continues to be the face of Serafino and enjoys hosting local, national and international guests at Serafino Restaurant, and still loves checking the vines, tasting wines and lending a hand inside the winery.

For our iconic Shiraz we bunch-thinned the best rows of fruit from our Willunga Sharktooth vineyard, named after the giant fossilized Megalodon tooth discovered there in the 1980s. The prehistoric ancestor of the Great White Shark measured some 25m in length.
