WINE MAKERS COMMENTS

MOXIE [mok-see] noun: vigor; verve; pep; self confidence; force of character; determination or nerve

MOXIE is a non-vintage Sparkling Shiraz - A blend of various vintages including a Shiraz base that contains vintages as far back as 1995 to give extra depth and richness. The Shiraz in the Moxie have been used like a solera system with a portion of the older material used in the blend to give the wine depth and wonderful richness on the palate. This base has then been blended with Shiraz from the 2018, 2019, and 2020 vintages to add lift, palate weight and richness.

This is a quintessential Australian Sparkling Red wine. It is rich, dark and dangerously delicious. Should be consumed cold, with good company, good food, good music and good cheer. Lovely wine to drink as an aperitif, or with roasted duck, goose, chicken or pork or at the close of a meal with dark fruit cake and a good cheddar type cheese. While rich, the wine is never cloying, finishing with vibrant acidity and some lovely drying tannins to offset the semi-sweetness of the wine. A long full palate, some initial sweetness on the long palate finishing with a refreshing crispness. Drink well-chilled.
