Welcome

Hello and welcome to our first Australia and New Zealand Tasting in Dublin.

The Aussies and Kiwis are good mates with lots in common. Fine wine, great food, stunning scenery, the cool Southern Ocean and also our cool Antipodean attitude.

New Zealand Winegrowers' tasting has been running in Dublin since 1997 and Wine Australia has been active in the market since 1992. This is the first time that we've come together to run an event in Ireland.

Our wines are an expression of our distinctive terroirs and the vibrant communities that craft them. Perfecting traditional techniques and inventing our own ways of doing things, we push the boundaries in the pursuit of the most diverse, thrilling wines in the world.

Explore more than 300 wines from 35 producers, ranging from international superstars to small boutique newbies. You'll find wines from 23 regions across Australia and New Zealand, and 18 different grape varieties. This is an opportunity to taste the latest vintages from iconic producers, discover alternative grape varieties and new wave styles, meet winemakers and catch up with importers.

We love to craft exceptional wine while protecting our natural wonders for future generations to enjoy.

At today's tasting, you can meet organic, biodynamic and sustainable champions and find out how our producers are nurturing the land, supporting regional communities and establishing resilient businesses.

We extend a particularly warm welcome to our 'new to market' Australian and New Zealand producers. Discover 50 new wines from wineries seeking distribution in Ireland. Their wines include Central Otago Pinot Noir, McLaren Vale Grenache, Adelaide Hills Riesling and a chocolate infused fortified wine. Offering a range of styles and varieties, there's something for every buyer.

If you have any queries about Australian or New Zealand wine, the Wine Australia and New Zealand teams are on hand and please don't hesitate to contact us on uk@wineaustralia.com and sarahs@nzwine.com.

Don't forget to share your discoveries with us and your fellow tasters. You can join the online conversation with the hashtags #aussiewine #nzwine.

We hope you enjoy the tasting and look forward to hearing your feedback.

In 1982 the first wine was made under the Elderton Label after Neil and Lorraine Ashmead lovingly restored a dilapidated vineyard on the property they had purchased. Tough times prevailed, but ultimately the vision of the founders shone through and Elderton is today celebrated as a major reason for the rejuvenation of the Barossa Valley. In 1993 Elderton shot to national prominence after winning the Jimmy Watson Trophy. Using sustainable practices, the dream is that the next generation of the Ashmead family have excellent foundations that can help them build for the future. The second generation, Cameron and Allister Ashmead believe very strongly in continuing the traditions that began a generation earlier, on the Nuriootpa vineyard. Wanting to take the family company to the next level, they devised a plan to buy great vineyards in other significant sub appellations of the Barossa, with additional vineyards in Greenock and Craneford. In 2023, the family purchased a fourth vineyard at Mengler Hill.

Blue Pyrenees Estate was established in 1963 by the French company Rémy Martin. The winery's first manager pioneered with plantings of famous French varieties like Shiraz, later experimenting with new world varieties, paving the way for premium cool climate viticulture in Australia. The rest, as they say, is history. Blue Pyrenees Estate was among the modern Australian wine industry's first ventures into cool-climate viticulture. In 2019 Blue Pyrenees Estate was purchased by the proprietors of Glenlofty Estate, the long standing central Victorian family the Richmond-Smith's. We've continued to evolve over the years and are proud to make authentic, world-class wines that do the Pyrenees region justice.
