

Angas & Bremer takes its name from two rivers revered as the heart and soul of our region, where vines were first planted over 150 years ago. Despite our long and distinguished history, Langhorne Creek is often regarded as Australia's best kept wine secret.

Sangiovese Rosé

TASTING NOTES

Our Sangiovese Rose was softly pressed to produce a wine with the perfect balance of natural sweetness and fruit flavour. The wine displays cherry and guava aromas, with delicate fruit flavours and a crisp dry finish.

Drink chilled as an aperitif or with your favourite Asian cuisine.
