

Bleasdale Vineyards is Langhorne Creek's founding Winery. Established in 1850 by English migrant Frank Potts who arrived in South Australia on the Buffalo in 1936, Bleasdale remains one of Australia's oldest wineries. Bleasdale's source of vineyards are situated on the flood plains of the Bremer River in Langhorne Creek, benefiting from the cooling breezes across Lake Alexandrina, and the cool slopes of the Adelaide Hills. Bleasdale Vineyards pride themselves on making modern, premium quality wines with cooler climate finesse which compliment a variety of food styles and special occasions.
