

SISTER'S RUN

“The truth is in the vineyard but the proof is in the glass.”
ELENA BROOKS, WINEMAKER

2021 Bethlehem Block Cabernet

About Us:

Sister's Run is serious fun. Our talented young winemaker Elena Brooks wears steel cap work boots every day of course, but carries a pair of high heels in back of the ute for emergencies, like last minute invitations to accept trophies at wine show dinners!

Returning from a 'knees-up' mid vintage, Elena managed to kick off one high heel and slip back into a boot, just as the cellar crew cried out, 'Run Sister Run!'. At that moment ; both our winemaker and label took flight!

Sister's Run has a fierce commitment to making the best wines we can from family vineyards. We don't take ourselves as seriously as we take our wines, we simply agree with Elena, "The truth is in the vineyard but the proof is in the glass."

We hope you enjoy this wine as much as we did making it. Cheers from all at Sister's Run... Alexandra, Barbara, Berenice, Dani, Daria, Elena, Geri, Helen, Jessica, Maree, Margie, Elouise, Stefka and Honorary Sisters; Encho, Jackson, Lance, Todor and Zar.

Colour:

Purple-black and dark; reassuringly grainy.

Nose:

Blackberries, dark fruits, and ripe compote. Fresh and alive and very primary in its cabernet aromatics: cassis, in a word. Wispy wafts of distant vanilla whiff through, hinting at the faintest aftershave-like application of subtle oak. Definable and discernible cabernet sauvignon.

Palate:

The sweetness and light of ripe and lush cabernet fruit, but then the reverse of the medal: something more trenchant and considered. An otherwise pert and long palate, with cool and cooling dark berry fruits. There's depth in the mid-palate, offering an ordered opulence. The giving fruit is balanced by textural and drying tannins.

In Summary:

Stewing beef of whatever cut your multi-generational family butcher has on hand or recommends. Use Star Anise in the stew, and 200ml of stout. Mashed potato, of course. These very savoury flavours will play the perfect Bridge Partner to this Bethlehem Block's generous homage to the left bank of the Gironde.
