Emily Chardonnay Pinot Noir Brut Cuvee

COOL CLIMATE WINES FROM THE KING VALLEY

FAMILY OWNED
VINEYARDS

“King Valley swings into second place in my list this year with 14 cuvées shortlisted, and it’s not all about prosecco. Brown Brothers and Redbank are doing some impressive pinot noir and chardonnay blends up there, too. And, of course, King Valley retains its crown as king of prosecco.” – Tyson Stelzer’s Australian Sparkling Report 2018.

WINEMAKING

“The crisp, clean purity and fresh, vibrant, youthful verve that won this wine its place as my Sparkling Wine of the Year under $20 in 2018, remains alive and well in the 2019 base release. It’s all about the primary crunch of (mostly) cool King Valley chardonnay, alluding to aromas and flavours of nashi pear, kaffir lime and lemon.” – Tyson Stelzer's Australian Sparkling Report 2020.

TASTING NOTE

Pale straw in colour with golden green tints. The nose is delicate and fruit driven with aromas of creamy apple pie, citrus zest, white nougat and pear. A faint peppery grapefruit note leads to an attractive cashew and yeast complexity from extended maturation on lees. The palate is crisp and fresh with green apple, lemon and cashew. There is a creamy texture on the mid palate from time on lees which complements the fine line of green pear and citrus acidity, leading to a refreshing, dry finish.
