Hoarding Guidelines

The New Heights campaign showcases the future of Melbourne Airport. The guidelines should be used as a guide when producing hoarding for the New Heights campaign. It outlines the elements which make up the campaign, and provides different examples of how they can be applied.

The success of the campaign is dependant on how well we follow these guides. It is crucial that we understand these elements and how they should be used. Please refer to this guidelines when developing any branded items and if you have any questions, contact the marketing team.

New Heights

Our campaign communicates the essence of a brighter future for its visitors by harnessing a sense of aspiration grounded in industry context. Underpinned by a sense of ambition, the overarching idea suggests that you won't simply be reaching new heights on our planes, but seeing our terminals, sustainability and arts & cultural scene taken to the next level, too.

Campaign Elements

Our campaign hoarding comprises a number of elements that come together in a modular grid.

Typography Placement

The typography should be positioned half of a box height from the side and top of the hoarding. Using this rule will ensure that the hoarding is consistent through out the airport.

There may be instances where the width of the hoarding may require the placement of the typography to change.

Messaging

The messaging for the campaign is intended to capture the essence of a brighter future for the airport’s visitors. Highlighting the improvements taking place in an approachable yet succinct way.

Depending on the objective of the hoarding the tiered messaging allows the flexibility to showcase to the project, brand or partnerships within the terminals and the airport as a whole.

Photography

The photography should be used to support the campaign and show Melbourne Airport in a transformative way with an emphasis on angles, perspective and movement. Focusing on airport infrastructure, people and the environment, the photography should portray Melbourne Airport as a contemporary and innovative place.

Partner Imagery

When using partner supplied imagery, please ensure it is professional in nature and sympathetic to the Melbourne Airport imagery guidelines.

Modular Grid System

All hoarding advertising should be created using our modular grid system. It is designed to be flexible in its use, but adhering to some simple rules will ensure consistency across all applications.

Image Grid

The image grid can be used to enhance the idea of elevating and stepping forward. The grid has the flexibility to include one image or a number grouped together.

When placing the images within the grid be mindful of the cropping of images to make sure that it is legible and if multiple images are used they sit well as a composition.

When combining multiple images a combination of images zoomed in and out will allow for contrast between them.

To the right are a few execution examples of the image layout

Call to Action Box

Key information such as a call-to-action or campaign byline should appear in a charcoal box within the modular grid. Melbourne Airport branded messaging may be supported by a simple line icon. Retailer or Parter branded messaging should be displayed as text only.

Only one Call to Action box should appear within a single hoarding execution.

Spacing

Please ensure all items within the call to action box have a consistent space from the edge.

Wayfinding Box

Where Wayfinding is required, it should appear housed in a charcoal box within the modular grid similar to a Call to Action. Where more complex Wayfinding messaging is required, multiple boxes may be used with a white dividing stroke.

All Wayfinding should adhere to the Melbourne Airport Wayfinding guidelines.

Logo Placement

To ensure there is a consistent placement of the Melbourne Airport logo, it should sit the baseline height away from the messaging. Please use the formula on the right when creating the hoarding.

There may be instances where the height of the hoarding may require the placement of the logo to change.

Co-branding

X-height formula

All campaign examples should include the Melbourne Airport wordmark in white on the Gradient Panel.

When creating a Retailer or Partner example, the partner logo should be displayed in white to the right of the MA wordmark with a pipe separator dividing the two.

A formula for calculating the size relationships is detailed opposite.
